

The QUEENSLANDER PICTORIAL.

Facade of Hospital from the Entrance.

THE SECOND A.A. HOSPITAL AT SOUTHALL.

SEE PAGE 29.

Afternoon on the Lawns.

Group of wounded men and nurses at Southall.

Wounded men doing the Sisters' hair in a hair dressing competition at the Southall Sports.

A STATE SCHOOL GARDEN.

H. A. Lamm, photo.

General view of the School and Garden,
Fairymead, Bundaberg.

The Vegetable Garden Plot
Fairymead School

E. F. Ryan, photo.
(All rights reserved.)

OUT WEST WHERE THE STARS ARE BRIGHTEST—MORVEN

The Main Street, from the Railway Station.

Post and Telegraph
Office

Horse Paddock

Public School

Police Quarters and Court House

W. J. Walton
photo

PUBLIC LIBRARY
MORVEN
NEW VICTORIA

(1) Willie Stewart, 18 months old, sitting on the floor. (2) Joseph James, 18 months old, sitting in a high chair. (3) Herbert Brown, 18 months old, sitting on a stool. (4) Alice Taylor, 18 months old, sitting in a high chair.

Young child, 18 months old, sitting on the floor.

Young child, 18 months old, sitting on the floor.

WAREHOUSE, BUILT BY THE LONDON & NORTH OCEANIC CO., LTD., AND THE GREAT EASTERN, SINGAPORE. THE BUILDING WAS COMPLETELY DESTROYED BY FIRE LAST YEAR. THE PHOTOGRAPH WAS TAKEN AFTER THE FIRE AND BEFORE REPAIRS.

RECEIVED AT THE PATENT OFFICE, LONDON, AT THE RECEPTION OF THE PATENT OFFICE, LONDON.

OPENING OF THE NEWLY BUILT LEAS COMPANY AT THE TEMPLE OF TRUTH, BIRMINGHAM, ON MONDAY. THE CROWD GATHERING IN FRONT OF THE BUILDING.

ALLIED GENERALS IN THE GREAT PUSH BACK.

GENERAL SIR JULIAN BYNG.
(British.)GENERAL SIR HERBERT C.
PLUMER.
(British.)GENERAL SIR H. RAWLINSON.
(British.)GENERAL J. A. MICHELIER.
(French.)GENERAL MANGIN.
General Mangin, known in France as the "baptême," is one of the most daring of the French generals. He is credited with the great success of his defense of Arras in the lower Somme valley. He is credited with the capture of the German line from the Meuse. General Mangin attacked the enemy in the western line, with great vigor. His the Germans were forced to change their offensive into a defensive.GENERAL SIR HENRY HUGHES.
(British.)GENERAL G. S. CLARKE.
(British.)LIEUT. GENERAL SIR ISAAC
MAUDE.
(British.)GENERAL HURST.
(British.)GENERAL SIR CHARLES
FERGUSON.
(British.)LIEUT. GENERAL POTHUIZEN.
(British.)LIEUT. GENERAL SIR A.
DOUGHTY-WATSON.
(British.)GENERAL GOUTARD.
(French.)GENERAL DESMET.
(French.)LIEUT. GENERAL THE EARL OF CAVENDISH.
(British.)LIEUT. GENERAL SIR ARTHUR
FERGUSON.
(British.)GENERAL JOVINE.
(French.)GENERAL FAUTER.
(French.)GENERAL BOUCHÉ.
(French.)

GEORGE JAMES DAVIES.
Killed in action in France, July 21.

PTE. ALBERT EDWARD KING.
Killed in action in France, August 18.

PTE. JAMES MCWHITTELL.
Who lost the Victoria Medal at the battle of Arras. He was severely injured.

PTE. WILLIAM L. WHISTON.
Killed in action, August 2, in France. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Whiston, of Ipswich.

PTE. C. E. O'BRIEN.
Killed in action in France, August 1. He was well known in England during his time as a football player.

THE NEW AUSTRALIAN BATTAL FOR FOREIGN SERVICE
PARADING THROUGH IPSWICH.
—Royal Photo.

THE NEW AUSTRALIAN BATTAL FOR FOREIGN SERVICE IN RECEIVING.
Reception by the Governor, the Mayor of Ipswich, and others at the Albert Square Banquet Room.

—Royal Photo.

A SYDNEY QUINSLANDER.

Mr. John W. W. R. Barker, of Ipswich, whose death was reported recently in the "Star" is in the center. The photograph shows him standing between two sons of military officers.

A QUINSLANDER PLANTED.

Tree planted in Ipswich, New South Wales, by Robert of Ipswich, W. O'Brien, M.C., and others. —H. R. Phillips photo.